Calvin's Corner:

“I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.”

Philippians 1:3-6
ESV

Thank you Concord Baptist Association for allowing me to serve you for these many years. You will always be on my heart and in my prayers. Vicki and my new address is 33 Ramsgate Rd, Savannah, GA 31419. You also may contact me by email at calbrown@gmail.com.

I leave you with the words of Paul:

“But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit; keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. And have mercy on those who doubt; save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh.

Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. “

Jude 20-25 ESV

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR SEARCH COMMITTEE

Friends and members of the Concord Baptist Association, please keep our Director of Missions Search Committee in your prayers as they look for the future leader of this Association. The members of this committee are: Allan Earls, Kevin Kohler, Roy Bernard, Kari Sullivan, and Jeremy Anderson. Pray that the Lord will guide them in their search to find a Director who is centered on God and will love the members of this Association unconditionally.

FREE BOOKS!

As Calvin cleaned out his office from years of ministry, he realized the large number of books he has that will not be able to make the trip with him to Georgia. For this reason, he will be leaving some behind that are free for the public! Feel free to stop by the Association Office to look through Calvin's collection of books and grab a few for yourself!

Baptist Collegiate Ministry

The focus of the Baptist College Ministry is, of course, the Lincoln University community. We have seen the Lord's work in the various opportunities that have sprung up in this ministry, not only to students but faculty, coaches, administration, and the Jefferson City community. I have had the privilege of being in homes of Jeffersonian Lincoln students to witness, counsel, pray, and even enjoy supper!

Recently, I accompanied a guy who has been in our Bible studies (and has accepted the Lord!). I thoroughly enjoyed talking theology, Bible, the Christian life- not with the guy- but with his father for over 2 hours no less! I got to meet his sweet wife and their other son and daughter. Then, the dad called me a few nights later to indicate his desire to grow stronger in the Lord.

This family lives around the corner from yet another student's family I know quite well (a student who has also accepted the Lord). They in turn (I recently discovered) live next door to a guy I've known for 20 years who now has EIGHT kids! Recently, some of this group watched an evangelism movie at my house. (I live only a block from campus). We are talking about having a block party in hope of reaching other folks in the neighborhood. Please pray for us as well as the continuing sewing of gospel seed in my role as football team chaplain.

NOTE: There is an opportunity for ministry for many others of us Baptists as well. You can sponsor a meal, invite students or sporting teams to worship, serve as chaplain, or "adopt" other Lincoln sports teams. Please pray about your involvement and contact me.

Please remember to support us as you create your upcoming missions budget.

Please continue to provide us with snacks and small food items.

Your Missionary on Campus,
Pastor Dave

People say that sticks and stones may break your bones, but that words will never hurt. Personally, I believe that words have the ability to hurt worse than mere sticks and stones. Like a shrapnel of glass from an exploding building, strong enough to penetrate the skin and pierce the most vulnerable parts of us, sour words have the ability to infiltrate our minds and stab our hearts. People of all ages, race, and gender struggle with insecurities due to the words that have been thrown at them by parents, friends, coworkers, and even strangers. We can all pretend that these witty jabs of others don't cut us, but they have the ability to break down our confidence and build bondages of insecurities in its place. However, the moment we understand we are worth more than the lies that people utter from their lips, those bondages from our past insecurities begin to crumble. The voices of doubt in our head become fainter. In this way, we are able to also be an encouragement to others. We have the ability to speak life into the darkness because we know the true source of light. Not the lime light found in the shimmering of society, but the light that shines by way of the through the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Be bold. Be an encouragement. Bring light. Share a smile. Most importantly, be you.

Kaysie

Congratulations!

We would like to say a HUGE congratulations to Dr. Calvin Brown upon his retirement. The impact that he has made within this Association in his years of service is beyond tremendous. Although we will never forget the work that he has done and the legacy he has built, we look with expectant hearts to the next Director of Missions that the Lord has planned for this Association.

Fun fact for the month about Kaysie Mae Uhrig:

Whenever I was born, my first name was spelled 'Cassie'. It was on my birth certificate and all over my baby blankets that my grandma had made for me. However, there was a lot of misunderstanding from friends and family, because my parents wanted it to be pronounced like 'Casey'. Due to the abundance of confusion, my parents legally changed the spelling of my name to 'Kaysie' whenever I was still a little baby.
