DEAR CBA CHURCHES,

With spring comes the time of year that we celebrate the greatest event in history. As a New Testament Christian, it is difficult for us to imagine a time without the resurrection of our Lord, such as in the Old Testament days. But on April 20, 2025 we get to remember and celebrate the hope that was provided to all of mankind when Jesus died on the cross to pay the penalty of our sins, was buried and gloriously rose from the grave three days later. Easter, or as many call it, Resurrection Sunday, is a special time to remember, express our thanks and to live a victorious and sanctified life in the Lord.

But when we hear the words, "He is not here, for He has risen, as He said. Come see the place where he lay." Matthew 28:6, it should bring our hearts to rejoice. Everyone present at the crucifixion saw Jesus die. They saw him placed in a tomb. They saw the tomb sealed. They saw guards set up to ensure no entry or exit from the grave. But despite what people saw, God delivered the impossible. Jesus rose from the dead and continues to live today. The miracle of the resurrection is still as powerful today as it was 2000 years ago.

There are many around us, in our family, in our community, state, nation and world, that need to experience the miracle of the Resurrection. God desires to use us to share hope, to minister, and to invite the lost to come to know Jesus. We never know when God is drawing someone to Himself, but God always desires us to be His witness (Acts 1:8) and to make disciples (Matthew 28:19-20). God invites us to share the Miracle of Easter everyday, everywhere, and in every way we can. Do you allow the Miracle of Easter to motivate you to share the hope of Jesus with the hopeless? To offer help to the helpless? To tend to the hurt of those who are injured? The solution is always Jesus. Jesus, the one who paid our penalty for our sin and to provide us eternal life. So, are you regularly sharing the Miracle of Easter with others? Today I encourage you to celebrate the Miracle of Easter by sharing your personal testimony of Jesus with some this week!

Bro. Alan

Lincoln Collegiate Ministry

Thank you to those of you who prayed and partnered with our Lincoln Spring Break service project to the Bronx in NYC. It was a fun privilege to direct 11 students in partnership with Graffiti 2 Baptist Church in the Mott Haven community. For several students, this was their first mission trip and a few even want to return, possibly this summer. It's always a highlight for me to experience in real time these students growing in their faith and serving as Christ frees and empowers them to use their skills and talents. Enjoy reading a few thoughts from Carolina, LU student athlete:

"The 2025 NYC mission trip was my first ever mission. Being able to see the beauty of New York not only through its infrastructure but through its people and communities first was one of my biggest takeaways from the trip.

Having the opportunity to minister and meet the needs of individuals in the community, helping out at public schools, and building connections with the students at the after-school program made a huge impact in my desire to help others. It was very heartwarming to know that there are individuals that want to spread the gospel and help others within the community. During my time helping out with the after-school program I was able to form a deep and meaningful sibling-like relationship with a young student who reminded me that with God, I will always have a family. I had an expectation of what my relationship with God should look like before I took this step ministering to others. Overall, this mission taught me that God loves us and will use us just the way we are."

Additionally, a day after returning from NYC, I had the privilege of praying over my goddaughter, Pressence, at her baby dedication on Sunday. It's been a highlight the last two years to mentor Ishaq and encourage him and his wife Annalisa as they love the Lord and each other while training their daughter in the nurture of the Lord.

Blessed to serve and grow His kingdom together,

Clint

MAKING A DIFFERENCE: NEW YORK / BRAZIL

JOIN US IN MAKING A DIFFERENCE!

March '25 - New York City | May '25 - Brazil

Would you prayerfully consider partnering with our BCM collegiate missions in 2025? Your gifts will make an eternal difference in growing our students and blessing those in need!

The New York Ministry Center provides a wide variety of services—food for the homeless, after school tutoring and mentoring, job training, park evangelism and church planting. Your partnering prayers and support will help this ministry center reach the people of New York with the hope of Jesus Christ.

In São Paulo, Brazil, we will partner with IMB Missionaries to serve one of the world's largest cities and home to millions of people who need the Gospel of Jesus Christ. On this mission, our team will serve through evangelism in favelas (slums), connect in refugee camps and partner in street evangelism. We are hopeful and trust that God will use us and move powerfully throughout the city.

EVANGELISM:

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus told the Parable of the Sower. In chapter 4:3, "Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow." In verse 14 He explains that the "Sower sows the word."

The question we need to consider is, are we seed Sowers?

In the Old Testament the Psalmist challenges us to be Seed Sowers. Psalm 126:5-6 says, "Those who sow in tears Shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, Bearing seed for sowing, Shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, Bringing his sheaves with him."

The Bible challenges those of us who have been delivered from our sins and saved by God's grace, to go into a lost and dying world and sow seed for the glory of God, trusting Him to take our few seeds and turn them into a mighty harvest.

I want to consider first, the task of the Sower. Go forth and sow seed. This speaks of a consistent, continual going and sowing. This is our mandate from heaven, our number one assignment from the Captain of our Salvation. We have been given a mandate from our Commander-in-Chief to be seed Sowers. Every child of God needs to obey three commands from our Lord Jesus Christ. What are those commands? Come, Learn, and Go. We come to Jesus for salvation. The second command is "learn of Me." As believers we learn of the Lord Jesus. We learn how to live for Him and how to serve Him. We also learn of what the Christian life is all about. The third commandment we must respond to is His command to go. As we go there should be a trail of seeds behind us. This is priority number one for every believer. Dr. Jerry Vines said, "We have no right under God to undertake any other assignment until first of all we are definitely and decisively engaged in actively winning people to faith in Jesus." Jesus said, "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which is lost" (Luke 19:10).

Who are you seeking to share the word of God with?

Jesus sought people out during His public ministry. He called Levi and then went to his home to meet other tax collectors whom Levi knew. He called Zaccheus down from the tree and told him he needed to go home with him. Jesus made house visits. When He visited a home, they were never the same again. Everywhere Jesus went He was bringing people to salvation.

The second thought I want to consider is the tears of the Sower. Notice in verse five of Psalm 126 the farmer goes out and as he sows, he is shedding tears. Why does he weep? Because he knows everything depends on the next crop. He has a burden for the harvest, and he wants to see the seed multiplied so that his people might live! We must reach the next generation. Do you have a burden to reach them?

Let me give you three reasons why we must have a burden for the lost:

1) Jesus had a burden. He shed tears on three occasions.

* He wept outside of Lazarus tomb. He wept at the sorrow and anguish that sin and death brought.

* He wept over the nation. He stood on the heights outside the city and wept because Jerusalem and the nation had rejected Him. He could see the future devastation that would take place in the city and to the people. He wept because He came to His own and they received Him not. They rejected Him.

* He also wept for the whole world of lost and ruined human beings. In Gethsemane the tears rolled down His cheeks mixed with drops of blood. So great was His agony as He thought of a lost, lost world.

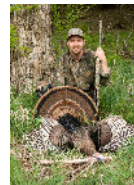

2) Past Experience should cause us to have a burden.

*There was a day when we were lost without God. Just the memory of sin and a life lived apart from the Lord ought to be enough to drive us out into the world to tell others about a God who loves them and died to save them. The Bible clearly teaches there are only two possible destinations for those who die. One is Heaven and the other is Hell. I submit to you that if we really believed in eternal hell, where the condemned burn for eternity apart from the presence of God with no hope of relief or release, then we would be more active in spreading the news that Jesus saves sinners!

BOOK REVIEW

This book review was submitted by Sarah Kennedy. Sarah is a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church.

WHAT'S SO AMAZING ABOUT GRACE? BY PHILIP YANCY

It is probably safe to say that every believer is not only grateful for God's grace but realizes that grace, by definition, is undeserved. In this book, Philip Yancy explores the subject of grace, not merely what it is but what should it look like in the life of every Christian. The dominant theme throughout his book is, "If grace is so amazing, why don't Christians show more of it?" (Yancy 1997, p. 229). Yancy gently rebukes Christians for being known more for legalism, unforgiveness, and judgmentalism than for showing love, grace, and forgiveness to a lost world. He uses stories from his own life and the lives of people he has met to illustrate the fact that we live in a world that is in desperate need of grace.

It is impossible to read this book and not experience conviction. Yancy's belief is the global Christian Church today is not associated with grace, and he considers that to be a major failure because, as followers of a God full of grace, we ought to be. There are chapters I found difficult to read because they illustrate just how far we are from where God expects us to be. Yancy, throughout this book, holds up Jesus as our example. How did Jesus treat people? How did Jesus interact with sinners? "Jesus never countenanced evil, but he did stand ready to forgive it. Somehow, he gained the reputation as a lover of sinners, a reputation that his followers are in danger of losing today," (Yancy 1997, p. 157).

What's So Amazing About Grace is a book that stands the test of time. First published in 1997, this edition has been updated with new, relevant examples and anecdotes. There are two different book studies available: a ten week study with an accompanying DVD and a fourteen week study. Any church or small group would find this book an excellent study that I anticipate will generate much discussion. I highly recommend spending time with this book.

The third thought we need to consider is the triumph of the Sower. (Psalm 126:6)

There is power in the seed. There is life in a seed that can crack concrete. There is power in the Word of God. Power to overcome all opposition. We must go and plant it. We must spread the word. We must broadcast the Gospel. God give us a promise. If we will go and sow in tears and sow the word of God, we shall doubtless come again with rejoicing bringing in a harvest. We can't win everyone, but we can win some.

I want to challenge you as well as myself, let's become Seed Sowers!
