DEAR CBA CHURCHES,

I am thankful for the blessings that God has given us during 2025. There has been Joy and there has been heartache, but God and His love remain true. What a blessing to mediate on His word, "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." Lamentations 2:22-23.

I am excited to see what God has instore for the churches of Concord Baptist Association in 2026. We have appreciated Living Word joining the association in 2025 and look forward to seeing opportunities to see more churches planted. I have been in discussion with a few of our churches who are seeking renewal through the Resound process. I look forward to seeing our churches continue to grow in faith and knowledge of God and His word and to put that faith into action.

As we look at our community, state, nation and world, we see lostness. I am thankful for churches like yours that see it too and instead of ignoring it, you are choosing to engage, share the Gospel and make disciples as Christ commands.

I am looking forward to revival within our churches and communities in the year ahead.

I am anticipating Christ's return soon. I am also thankful for the trust that God has put into us to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ so that God may draw those who are lost to Himself. Only God knows how much time we have to share the Gospel before the return of Christ. What a privilege we have in these last days to profess Jesus, be His witness and to allow the power of the Holy Spirit to move within us to do His great work.

May God richly bless you, your family and your church in 2026. Thank you for all you do to honor and serve our Lord!

In Christ,

Bro. Alan

Happy New Year, CBA Churches!

I trust that y'all will enjoy and celebrate Jesus over this upcoming holiday season with fresh excitement. Having returned in early December after concluding my sabbatical, I was grateful to get some time with our students during their final week of studies and Christmas gift exchanges. We loved a night of snacks, sharing stories, comedic gift exchanges and thanking and praying over Pastor Jon before a week of finals and projects to finish off the semester.

Returning in January, we will take a walk through His Word surrounding topics of Abiding, Bearing Fruit and Identity in who Jesus says we are as His children. We also are excited to partner with churches and a rescue mission in my Mile High City of Denver over Spring Break in March. Would you please prayerfully consider partnering with us in prayer and resources as we prepare our hearts and stories to share His love in East Denver?

Blessings and Happy New Year,

Christ

WELCOME BACK: CLEAN UP

Our spring semester starts Monday, January 12th with the Lincoln University students gathering for a few studies that first week back. I would love to get a solid group of 15 - 20 folks from our CBA churches to come help deep clean the BSU on Saturday, January 10th from 10am to Noon. Would you please kindly respond if you're interested and available to serve and partner with us?

If so, please wear your grubby clothes and bring your rubber gloves and a couple cleaning supplies along!

Grateful,

Christ

BOOK REVIEW

This book review was submitted by Sarah Kennedy. Sarah is a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church.

FRESH WIND, FRESH FIRE BY JIM CYMBALA WITH DEAN MERRILL

Jim Cymbala is the pastor of the Brooklyn Tabernacle in New York City. This book, written in 1997, recounts the early years when he and his wife, Carol, were called to what was then a small, struggling church located in a very rough part of Brooklyn. Many of you will have read this book as I did, years ago, however, I found it a valuable reminder of what our focus should be as a church.

What stands out as we read this book is not the size of their mission field but the commitment this church made to prayer and evangelism. One of the first changes Cymbala made in this congregation was to begin a weekly prayer meeting. He quickly realized that prayer was the most important activity of the church. "You can tell how popular a church is by who comes on Sunday morning. You can tell how popular the pastor or evangelist is by who comes on Sunday night. But you can tell how popular that Jesus is by who comes to the prayer meeting," (Cymbala 1997, p. 28). This commitment to regular, fervent prayer led to a sense of unity and purpose. As a group, they became more open to the needs of those living in close proximity to their church and more open to welcoming these individuals despite their lifestyle, their smell, their clothing, or their habits.

his book is a powerful reminder of God's work through the church today and our participation through prayer, evangelism and outreach. I encourage you to pick up this book again; you won't be sorry you did.

WKND.26 THEME

"Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.'" — John 14:6-7

We are all on a journey. Some wander without direction. Some run toward success, comfort, or control. Others don't even realize they're moving. But every path leads somewhere, and every heart longs for the same things: truth, purpose, and life that lasts. From the very beginning, there has only been one true Way: Jesus Christ. He doesn't just point to The Way—He is The Way. The life He offers isn't about empty religion or performance; it's about relationship. It's not a path we trek on our own, but one He's already walked for us and now walks with us.

The Way is not easy. It's narrow, countercultural, and often costly. But it leads to life, hope, and freedom. It's a path marked by faith, obedience, and the power of the Holy Spirit. It's a walk strengthened by community and anchored in truth. The Way of Jesus is not a momentary decision. It is a journey of becoming more like Jesus Christ by trusting Him step by step and choosing Him each day. The Way isn't just for the strong or the spiritual—it's for anyone willing to surrender and walk in truth. This is the journey we were made for.
